

Get Smart Serve Certified!

paid for by CDCRC

Why does CDCRC pay for Smart Serve Certification?

We operate a volunteer-run bar in order to save money on staffing, which allows us to keep drink prices more affordable. In exchange for paying for the Smart Serve Certification, we ask that you either volunteer in the bar during curling, or squash league play (applicable to those who play in the leagues), and/or during club revenue generating events (tournaments & parties.)

How do I get certified?

Simply create an individual account online at www.smartserve.ca and complete the training and test on your own time. Once you have successfully completed the training and have your certification number, provide a copy to CDCRC and we will reimburse you the cost ($34.95 +HST)

How do I sign up?

1. Contact the CDCRC manager to let her know you are interested:
Rachel Whitton

705-653-4433
2. Any further information will be communicated through the manager at that time

Thank you!
